

Date: June 10th, 2024
Venue: ECLAC Headquarters
Santiago de Chile, Chile

Objective: The primary objective of the commemorative meeting for the 30th anniversary of Belém do Pará is to reflect on the achievements and remaining challenges in building a cooperative system among the States Parties for the effective implementation of the Convention. Additionally, it aims to enhance the participation of civil society in advancing and expediting the Convention's implementation.

This event also intends to provide a forum for national and international organizations to evaluate and strengthen the functioning of both the Convention and its Follow-up Mechanism. Furthermore, it seeks to establish a platform where organizations can prepare to contribute to the discussions and evaluations that will take place during the Ninth Meeting of States Parties to the Belém do Pará Convention on June 11 and 12, 2024.
